6/16/2020	Web	It is good that the choices have been narrowed down to only 3. I'm not sure any of our comments will help, b/c I had read that Governor Hogan had already made up his mind. Wish the public had some say in the matter!!	We live in Chestertown, Md so we've been very concerned about the choices of the 3rd Bay Bridge crossing. We feel that # 8 would keep the traffic flow away from Annapolis, Queenstown and Centreville. Annapolis, particularly route 50 is already congested on weekends with people traveling from Va. and DC., so this might help in redirecting traffic.	Reducing congestion, Safety, Community/Development impacts
